

Haiku to You!

Haiku is a Japanese form of poetry. The poems are often about nature or something peaceful. Usually they have three lines.

1. Line one has 5 syllables.
2. Line two has 7 syllables.
3. Line three is back to 5 syllables.

Here is one example:

WINTER
Silent snowflakes fall
On freezing, icy fingers.
Holes in my mittens.

Now write your own haiku!

_____ (title)

by _____

For more fun, look for
Junie B. Jones:
Top-Secret Personal Beeswax